

Micro-Credential Summit 2026

Travel Bursary Application

eCampusOntario is allocating funds for faculty, staff, and administrators of its member institutions to travel and attend Micro-Credential Summit 2026: Tomorrow's Skills, taking place in person at The Quay (Toronto, ON) on February 11–12, 2026.

More information about the event can be found on the English and French registration pages.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Recipients will be awarded a $500 travel bursary to support their attendance at Micro-Credential Summit 2026. This bursary is intended to help cover eligible travel-related expenses such as accommodations, parking, meals, gas, and transportation.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- To qualify, the recipient must:
- Work at a publicly-assisted Indigenous Institute, college, or university in Ontario
- Reside more than 200 kilometers (one-way) from the site of Micro-Credential Summit 2026 (The Quay, Toronto).
- Apply in advance of attending MCS 2026.

Applications will remain open until 11:59 pm ET on Feb. 4, 2026, or until available funds are exhausted. Don't wait – apply today!

PROCESS & TIMELINES

Applicants will receive an email confirming the status of their application within one week of completing the form.

Upon attending Micro-Credential Summit 2026, bursary recipients will be required to sign an attendance confirmation form at the conference registration desk.

Within five business days of the event, recipients will receive banking forms to complete and return to eCampusOntario for bursary payment. Recipients can expect to receive funds within three weeks of eCampusOntario receiving completed forms.

eCampusOntario will issue a T4A for the 2026 tax year to all recipients in accordance with CRA guidelines. As receipts will not be collected, it is the recipient's responsibility to retain all documentation for personal tax purposes.

Apply Here

Please complete the form here to apply for the MCS 2026 Travel Bursary.